

STREET JOSTLING CAUSES TRAGEDY

One Policeman Dead, One
Fatally Hurt, Boy
Wounded.

NEW YORK, April 15.—With one policeman dead, another fatally shot and a youth severely wounded, Salvatore Governali, who attacked the three, walked rather jauntily into the coroner's court today and showed little concern at the grave charge against him.

An accidental jostling and then an angry dispute brought about the tragedy. Here is its pathetic record:

Policeman George M. Sechler, who lived at 302 Bridge street, Brooklyn, was shot while pursuing Governali. While dying at St. Vincent's Hospital, he begged that his young wife and babe, only a few weeks old, be sent for. Deputy Commissioner Bugher went after her in an automobile and the baby was placed in Sechler's arms just as he died. Policeman Alfred Sellick lives at 304 South Third street, Williamsburg. He was shot in the lung, and was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital in a dying condition. Sellick wore a medal for saving a woman and child at a fire.

MRS. EDDY TRUSTEES READY TO FILE REPLY

CONCORD, N. H., April 15.—The defendants in the Mrs. Eddy equity case must file an answer to the petitioners' "supplemental" bill today, and it is stated that their actions this afternoon will be as unexpected as the surprise sprung by the plaintiffs two weeks ago.

A motion is not anticipated. It is generally supposed today's entry will be in the form of an answer to the additional bill of the relatives, which demands that the deed under which Mrs. Eddy's entire property passed into the control of the three trustees be vacated on the grounds that she was not competent to execute such an instrument.

Attorney General Eastman, counsel for some of the New Hampshire defendants, was in conference with General Streeter for a long time Saturday. Yesterday afternoon General Streeter held another conference. It was attended by Trustees Fernald and Baker and lasted several hours.

All that General Streeter would say was that they would file the reports.

ACADEMY OF SCIENCES CONVENES TOMORROW

The annual session of the National Academy of Sciences, the honor society of the scientists of this country, will begin at the Smithsonian Institution tomorrow at 10:30 o'clock. The morning sessions will be devoted to business, the afternoon sessions, from 2 to 4 o'clock, being for discussion of scientific subjects and open to the public. Its present membership is ninety-seven. Many of these members will present papers on new discoveries in science.

Prof. Alexander Agassiz, of Harvard, has announced a desire to retire from the presidency, which he has held for many years, and a successor will be selected at this meeting. A new secretary will also be elected, the term of Arnold Hague having expired. The sessions will last for several days.

ABOLISHING SEASONS.
Florida tomatoes, superior to the California article, are selling for 20 cents a pound in Nebraska. Scientific trucking and modern transportation make all seasons look alike in the dining room.—Nashville American.

Flow of Gold Will Start Into Masonic Fair Treasury At Eight o'Clock Tonight

President Roosevelt Will Push Appropriate Golden Button.

Many Prominent Men
Arrange to Be Present.

After a day of final activities, all is in readiness for the opening of the Masonic Fair tonight at 8 o'clock, when President Roosevelt will press a golden button at the White House which will turn on the flood of light and let loose the babel of voices at Convention Hall, where an immense crowd will be gathered. A moment later the fair will be in full swing and the voice of the speller, accompanied by the more demure tones of the maiden who presides over the nearby booth, will be heard on all sides.

Most Stupendous Undertaking.
The fair is one of the most stupendous undertakings of its kind ever attempted, and tonight's opening is but the culmination of weeks of careful preparation and constant work on the part of the various committees in charge. Appropriate exercises have been arranged for the opening night, and men prominent in every walk of life will be present at the hall when the touch of President Roosevelt sets everything in motion.

A record-breaking crowd is expected. Including the great, the near-great, and those who are have hopes of becoming great, in addition to many who are satisfied with their status quo and who will attend solely for the purpose of talking in the fair and with no especial desire to see others or to be seen.

Guests Invited for Tonight.

Among the guests invited for tonight's opening are Commissioners H. B. F. Macfarland, Henry L. West, and Col. John Biddle; William Loeb, Jr., secretary to the President; Col. Charles G. Brownell, U. INTERNATIONAL LAW SOCIETY MEETS FRIDAY

Elihu Root, Secretary of State, and other prominent Government officials, as well as authorities on international law from different sections of the country, will deliver addresses before the first annual meeting of the American Society of International Law, which will meet in this city Friday and Saturday, closing with a banquet Saturday night.

Secretary Root, who is president of the Society, will deliver the opening address Friday morning. During the morning session there will be discussions of the question whether immunity from capture during war of non-offending private property upon the high seas be in the interest of civilization, and whether the trade in contraband of war is unethical and should be prohibited by international and municipal law. Minister Calderon, of Argentina, will enter into the discussion of the Drago Doctrine. Former Secretary of State Olney and others will discuss the rights of foreigners in the United States in case of conflict between treaties and State laws which will cover the Japanese situation in San Francisco.

Questions that are to come up at the League peace conference will be discussed Saturday morning by former Secretary of State John W. Foster, John Bassett Moore, U. S. M. Ross, delegate to the Hague, Representative Bartholdt, and others. The President will receive the members of the society at the White House Saturday afternoon, and in the evening Ambassador Bryce, of Great Britain; General Horace Porter, delegate to the Hague; Senator Spooner, and others will speak.

WAR WAGED ON CATS BY YALE STUDENTS

NEW HAVEN, April 15.—With a long story of sleepless nights and entrance conditions to be worked off, Earl A. Coyne, a Shatt freshman, and John Baird, his roommate, a sophomore in the academic department of Yale, applied to the chief of police and to Mayor Studley for permission to carry on a war against cats that they say infest the neighborhood of Lake place, where they room.

The two were in police court, having been arrested for driving a gun in offense of the law. When Coyne told Judge Matthews of the annoyance they had been subjected to and that he was in danger of losing his place in college, the judge fined them each $1 and remitted the costs. Both said that they were working their way through college.

Neither Mayor Studley nor Chief Wynn would issue a permit to shoot cats promiscuously, but they were told that a little judicious night target practice at prowlers would not be regarded as a serious offense.

Demonstrations in Housefurnishing Dept. (Basement)

Mr. H. S. Parks of the WHITE ENAMEL REFRIGERATOR CO. of St. Paul, Minn., will be here for a few days and give a PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION OF THE FAMOUS BOHN SYPHON REFRIGERATOR—A REFRIGERATOR EVERY HOUSEWIFE OUGHT TO KNOW ABOUT.

It is different and far better than other refrigerators you know of—a real revolution in refrigeration. It gives a uniform temperature of six degrees above freezing. Milk, onions, and hamburger cheese can be placed in this refrigerator without the slightest tint to the milk. Call and see Mr. Parks and learn what perfect refrigeration really means.
